FORSYTH-MONROE COUNTY SPORTS HALL OF FAME

BILL LYONS

Bill Lyons was a Hubbard High School basketball and football star from 1962-65. Lyons had an award-winning high school basketball career for the Tigers, averaging 22 points per game on the hardwood. He also starred as a wide receiver on the gridiron. Following high school, Lyons was drafted into the military, where he served in the Vietnam War. He later returned to Forsyth, where he was employed with Hardin Landscaping Company and Atlanta Gas Light Company, respectively. In addition, Lyons coached basketball at the Monroe County Recreation Department for many years, winning four league championships while leading the Celtics. Bill is married to Dorothy and has two children. He has seven grandchildren and one great grandchild.
